When the people of Kentucky learn more about Nate Morris, his image will continue to tank and his ballot will remain stuck in single digits. Framing Morris as the woke liberal he is, will be key for Kentuckians. It's also important for voters to start learning about the woke Morris record and all his outrageous liberal fads he's embraced. The facts will prove what we all know.

Nate Morris is a woke phony.

Morris is so woke he sucked up to Black Lives Matter when he thought it was cool and hired Barack Obama's top Advisor to run his company. Morris is so woke he donated big bucks to stop Trump.

That's why the same Never Trumpers who spent millions attacking Trump are attacking Andy Barr. Kentuckians won't fall for it. Andy Barr is an America first patriot. He stands strong with Trump. And always will.

Consider also that Morris is so woke he hired Barack Obama's top advisor and made his employees attend classes to lose their white privilege.

Morris is so woke he tried to beat Trump in the last primary and sucked up to BLM rioters when he thought it was cool.

Morris is so woke he took the DEI pledge and invested big bucks in liberal pet projects and the woke social agenda.

Kentuckians won't fall for Nate Morris and his fully woke past when they learn the truth.
